

FAS-SEAS Senate Meeting
October 26, 2023
3:30 PM (Closed Session – Senators only)
4:00 PM – 5:30 PM (Open Session for FAS and SEAS Faculty)
Dow Hall 100, 370 Temple Street (in person), or on Zoom

AGENDA

Closed Session (3:30-4:00):

1. (Meg Urry) Principles for Senate action (example: statements on Israel-Hamas war)
2. (Oswaldo Chinchilla, Maria Piñango) Preliminary Senate discussion of Diversity Comm report (if time permits)

Open Session (4:00-5:30):

1. Generative AI Guidance for Teaching and Learning. (4:00-4:50pm)
Jennifer Frederick (Executive Director of the Poorvu Center for Teaching and Learning and Associate Provost for Academic Initiatives) will discuss generative AI in the context of teaching and learning at Yale. The discussion will include:
 - General observations about generative AI in education at Yale as of early fall 2023
 - Top recommendations and a useful framework for thinking about generative AI use policies in your courses
 - Mitigating the risks – what faculty should know
 - Broader campus action and planning framework – an early preview
 - Q&A
2. Diversity Committee Report on Romantic and Sexual Relationships Between Faculty and Graduate Students. (4:50-5:30pm)
Senators Oswaldo Chinchilla and Maria Piñango, will present a report of the Diversity Committee concerning a proposed policy change concerning romantic and sexual relationships between faculty and graduate students.