

FAS-SEAS Senate Meeting

Thursday, November 30, 2023

Dow Hall 100, 370 Temple Street and on Zoom

3:30 PM – 4:00 PM – Senators only closed session

4:00 PM – 5:30 PM – Open session

AGENDA

Closed Session:

- Discussion of the child-care letter from WFF
- Preliminary remarks about supporting students in times of conflict
- Ideas about regular faculty lunches
- Other business

Open Session:

- 4 PM – 4:45 PM - *Open Science and Open Scholarship at Yale: Barbara Rockenbach, the Stephen F. Gates '68 University Librarian at Yale University and her colleagues, will discuss library investments in the infrastructure to help disseminate scholarship more broadly, incentives for faculty to do so, and how faculty can retain rights to their scholarship.
- 4:45 PM – 5:30 PM - *How Can Faculty Best Support Students in Stressful Times? Pericles Lewis, Dean of Yale College and Douglas Tracy Smith Professor of Comparative Literature and English; Lynn Cooley, Dean of the Graduate School, Vice Provost for Postdoctoral Affairs and C.N.H. Long Professor of Genetics and Professor of Cell Biology and Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology; and Maytal Saliel, Interim University Chaplain, will discuss what they have been hearing from students over the past 7 weeks, and how, in times of conflict and profound disagreement, faculty can set the tone.